

Studio Information

RastBallet offers a spacious dance environment, a resilient wood floor, and multiple restrooms. Street parking is available. The parking lot, which can be accessed from Ravenswood Avenue, is available ONLY after 6 p.m. weekdays and all day weekends; no parking EVER in "Reach" or "Black Bear" spots. The facility is a short walk from the Addison stop on the Brown line.

The studio is available for rehearsals, auditions, workshops and parties. Please call for fees.

Studio Director & Faculty

Natalie Rast has been teaching ballet to students of all ages for 25 years. She has studied with renowned ballet masters throughout Europe and the U.S., including Richard Ellis, Christine DuBoulay, Anna Paskevaska, and Larry Long. She was a Principal Dancer with Joel Hall Dancers from 1981 to 1986. She has served as ballet mistress for various Chicago companies and is currently on the faculty of Columbia College and the Chicago Academy for the Arts.

Master ballet instructor Robert Baudry trained at Schola Cantorum and Académie Internationale de la Danse, Paris, with faculty from the Paris Opera Ballet school under the direction of prima ballerina Yvette Chauvire. He was a member of the company Ballet de Bretagne and taught widely in Paris.

Ballroom/Children's Ballroom/Latin Dance instructor Candy Swetz developed an accelerated learning system for dance which derived from her experience as an educator for 32 years. She specializes in group lessons for children and teens, as well as private instruction for adults, particularly engaged couples preparing for their wedding celebrations.
